PALM HOLDINGS CANADA PURCHASES HOTEL IN SOUTHWESTERN ONTARIO

Purchases hotel ideal for business and leisure travellers in London, Ontario

TORONTO, ON (September 30, 2014) – Palm Holdings Canada is expanding its unique hotel experience in London, Ontario with its purchase of Quality Suites London, owned and operated by Palm Holdings' affiliated companies as of September 29, 2014. By revitalizing the hotel and delivering the quality experience travellers have come to expect from a Palm Holdings-managed property, Palm Holdings will showcase a hotel that is ideal for both business and leisure travellers, with an attractive location just off Highway 401 and minutes from major local institutions and attractions.

“London has a strong institutional base with many government and educational establishments, as well as an economy with significant industrial, technological and agricultural sectors, so creating a hotel experience that caters to the specific needs of our corporate customers is important for this location,” explains Paul Sutton, Vice President of Operations, Palm Holdings Canada. “Along with the hotel’s close proximity to the downtown core and Highway 401, London is the perfect location for Palm Holdings to expand our business-centred brand.”

Quality Suites London features 118 suites, a lounge and breakfast area, and meeting facilities. Conveniently located off Wellington Road South and Highway 401, the hotel is a short drive from downtown London, London Health Sciences Centre and Western University. The hotel is surrounded by an assortment of dining options, and offers easy access to White Oaks Shopping Centre, London Convention Centre, Budweiser Gardens and The Grande Theatre.

Quality Suites London ensures a comfortable stay for guests with rooms featuring plush bedding, functional workspaces, mini-refrigerators and microwaves. The hotel's complimentary Wi-Fi and meeting facilities are ideal for business travellers.
