

White House Communications Agency

Certificate of Appreciation

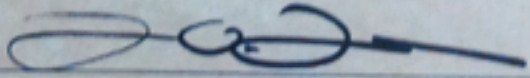

Presented To

Holiday Inn Express

3 January 2014

The members of the White House Communications Agency wish to express our sincere appreciation for the outstanding manner in which you provided support to the Vice President of the United States during his visit to Fort Myers, Florida. Your efforts, coupled with your superb attitude and impeccable professionalism, enabled us to provide critical communications for the Vice President, the White House Staff and the United States Secret Service.

Liu O. Turner
Vice Presidential Communications Officer

